Fifty Dollars Reward.

RAN away on the 28th of April, from the farm of the subscriber, in Dogue Neck, Fairfax Co. Virginia, negro HARRY, aged about twenty three years, about five feet ten inches high, very black, well built, has a considerable impediment in his speech, when spoken to evinces much confusion, and replies almost unintelligibly: had on when he left home, a much worn suit of domestic cloth. I have every reason to believe that he is endeavoring to pass for a free man, and as such went off in some of the bay craft during the late fishing season. All masters of vessels are forewarned from harboring or taking into their employ said negro, under penalty of having the law rigidly enforced against them. I will give twenty dollars, if taken in the county of Fairfax, or district of Columbia; if beyond that distance, the above reward, provided he is secured in jail so that I get him again. WILLIAM MASON.
Charles County, Md. June 1.
The editors of the National Intelligencer and Baltimore Federal Gazette will insert the above until forbid, and send their accounts to Port Tobacco for payment.
June 11 tf

Was Committed

TO the jail for Alexandria county, as a runaway, on 21st inst. a negro man, who calls himself HENRY WILLIAMSON, alias JACOB ROBINSON. The said negro is about 25 years of age and about 5 feet six inches high, of a yellow complexion; he had on a blue cotton jacket, and linen trowsers. When committed, he said he was the property of Mr. Elliot, of Baltimore, but now says he is the property of a Mr. Tyson, of the same place, and that he will be entitled to his freedom in a short time.
The owner is requested to come forward and prove property, pay charges and take him away, otherwise he will be disposed of as the law directs.
ANDW ROUNSAVELL.

Mr. Editor,

KNOWING that there is a number of the most worthless of society, who make it a business to spread evil reports respecting the solvency of banks in the different parts of the United States, for the purpose of depreciating and purchasing their paper. I feel it is my duty to give a list of the Banks of the District of Columbia, that it may be made known to all persons in every part of the Union, that the said Banks do pay specie for their notes, on demand, and that they are justly entitled to the highest credit and standing, and that they are opposed to a suspension of specie payments, and will be the last in the country that will agree to such a measure. This communication is made to prevent imposition, and to inform all persons who may have the paper of those banks, in any part of the Union, that they may hold it as so much specie. Persons emigrating and travelling north, south or west, would do well by taking the notes of those banks, as they will always find them equal to specie, and often to command a premium of 5 to 10 per cent, for remittances to Baltimore, Philadelphia & New-York. To my numerous acquaintances (trading men,) and the community, I pledge myself for the foregoing.
The following are the banks of this district that pay specie for their notes on demand, viz:
The Farmers' and Mechanics' Bank of Georgetown,
Central Bank of Georgetown & Washington,
Union Bank of Georgetown,
Bank of Columbia,
Bank of the Metropolis,
Patriotic Bank of Washington,
Bank of Washington,
Bank of Alexandria,
Union Bank of Alexandria,
Farmers' Bank of Alexandria,
Bank of Potomac,
Branch Bank of the United States at Washington.
I hold myself responsible for the foregoing declaration to the public. Done at my Exchange Banking House, Bridge-street, Georgetown, this 26th day of May, 1819.
ROMULUS RIGGS.
Editors of newspapers throughout the United States, by giving the above a few insertions, will greatly benefit the community. R. R.

A FEMALE MONSTER.

On Saturday last a little child was left at the house of a respectable man of color in the suburbs of the town, under circumstances indicating a degree of moral depravity in the being that seemed to be his mother, that well entitles her to the epithet of a female monster! The circumstances of the transaction, as related by the woman of the house, are simply as follows: On the morning of Saturday, a strange white man called at her doorand asked several questions about the town and neighborhood, and among others, whether there was a poor house in the town, and on going away, said that a woman with a child would pass along in a short time, and requested that she might be permitted to rest there until he returned. In about an hour, a white woman with a white child did come, and stop at the house, and soon after the man returned with refreshments for her.—He had some private and apparently mysterious conversation with the woman, and they both very soon departed, in opposite directions, leaving the hapless child standing in the street! The woman of the house finding the child thus abandoned, kindly took him in the house, expecting that his parents (for such she supposed them to be,) would soon return, but the unnatural wretches returned not.

The man is described to be about 40 or 45 years of age—rather spare and of middle stature—light complexion—head bald—hair and whiskers sandy. His clothes were good, but dirty. It is strongly suspected he is the same person who was on that day soliciting aid of the masonic societies, in the character of a distressed brother.

The woman was not of so good an appearance, being dressed in a calicoe habit, dirty and slovenly. She was probably about 25 or 26 years of age. He addressed her by the name of Susan.

The poor little offcast boy appears to be about four years old. His hair is of a light sun-burnt colour; his eyes a dark hazle, a little inclined to be crossed; and when he is angry, his brows are contracted into a dark vindictive scowl. His dress consists of a coarse white Virginia cotton frock—His ideas are very contracted, and his language vulgar and indistinct. He bears evident marks of the grossest mental neglect and personal ill treatment. He can give no account of himself. He knows no name but that of Robert, by which the woman called him. He called the woman Suke. He frequently says, "Suke is gone." He sometimes speaks of "the baby." His throat was sore, and bruised as if from choaking: he said "Suke did it." There was also a bruise on his side, as if from a kick, and his feet were sore and swollen with walking.

We have been thus far particular in describing the man and the woman that the public may be guarded against them, and in the hope that they may be brought to justice for this most unnatural act, which cries aloud for condign punishment.

It is conjectured by some that the poor boy is not the child of the woman who has thus abandoned him, but that he has been kidnapped from some poor parents, who are now bewailing the loss of their child in bitter grief; and has been used by these people as their son for the purpose of extorting charity from the public, until finding him become burdensone, they have left him to his fate.

Transactions of this nature are so uncommon among us, that this has excited the most lively indignation among our citizens; and it is ardently hoped that a publication of the circumstances may lead to a complete developement of all the facts and the punishment of the guilty.

The woman said she came from near Richmond. She did not appear to be acquainted with towns.

The child is safely lodged at the poor house, where he will be taken care of.

Communicated for the Balt. Federal Gaz.

MR. EDITOR,

I a few days since troubled you with the publication of a letter from my persecuted friend at Algesiras. Another is at your service. Yours, Y. Z.

Algesiras, April 14, 1819.

MY DEAR SIR:

I had last the pleasure of addressing you on the 12th inst. I have just learned of an opportunity (the schnr. Agenoria, capt. Winter, from Gibraltar for Boston) to enable me to continue my advices. A most important change has taken place here since mine above referred to. The old Juiz has been summoned to appear at that tribunal, from which there is no appeal—Peace to his ashes! How this event will operate upon my claims for justice, a short time will enable me to determine. There are two candidates, both in court, striving for the vacancy. We anxiously wait to hear from the royal petticoat embroiderer, who is the successful candidate. One of them already enjoys a snug birth, but I should have no objection to see him advanced a little higher. But his rival, it is apprehended, will be the fortunate applicant. This is is a very pleasant well spoken Don, all blandishment and softness, and, for a Spaniard, quite a scholar and great reader, having perused almost every author from Robinson Crusoe to Adam Smith! He has, moreover, been employed by his most catholic majesty in some important travels and researches; such as a trip to the prophet's tomb at Mecca, and a still greater undertaking in exploring the interior of Africa, having really visited the famed Tombuctoo. He has of course returned a truly great man, having fully informed himself of the manners, customs, forms of government, &c. of the sable nations, and is quite competent for the establishment of a republic, (at least) himself. He published a voluminous account of his expedition on his return, but which, not understanding Spanish, I have never read: it is said to be a wonderful production. But busy rumor says this don, with all his learning is not suited for the high station—not only that he leans favorably towards these Spanish Algerines, but whispers extend farther—which you will understand, for my own part, I should be sorry to give full credit to these reports—but the inhabitants openly assert, that if he becomes the Juiz, farewell to our hopes—for not only will every encouragement be given to those pirates already equipped, but the greatest inducements to new adventurers in the honorable contest! Forbid it Heaven!

With what pain my dear sir, did I yesterday receive a letter from my friend S—, at Gibraltar, telling me to cease my upbraidings of the Spanish authorities, for that in your city, the proceedings were quite as bad as they could possibly be in Algesiras; and that privateers are fitted and refitted to cruize under the flag of the insurgent provinces of the south, against nations in amity with the United States!! Oh! shame, shame, my countrymen! how dreadful will these things operate against me, when disclosed here; and how little credit do they reflect upon the American character! All my hopes now are, that a Juiz may succeed the deceased, of impartial honesty, and who will not permit justice to be longer withheld; but, if a contrary character ascends the bench, I shall abandon all, and return to you immediately.

Coffee has advanced a little in price, and may be quoted exclusively of duties, at 34 cents. Flour and bread stuffs of all descriptions a drug. Exports too high to promise a saving price to shippers. I am, yours, &c.

AN INDIAN WAR BREWING.

A letter from a gentleman at Belle Point on the Arkansaw, to another in this city, says, that the Cherokee and Osage Indians are on the eve of another war. That the Cherokees are the aggressors, it is said, there is do doubt. They had, within a few days, stolen forty horses from the Osages; and, in taking them home, they killed four men, and wounded several more. This mode of procedure is looked upon by the Osage nation as a war measure, and justly. There are a number of the more northern Indians who are urging the Osages to war, and offer them assistance, &c. It is said that Maj. Bradford, of the rifle regiment, who commands at Fort Smith, sent word to them, if there was a war to be carried on, he must have a hand in it, and that they must and should suspend hostilities until they heard from him. He was to hold a Council with them in a few days.

The following article reached us, by yesterday's mail, from our New-York correspondent. It is scarcely necessary to say, that there is no cause for alarm to the friends of peace in this country, from the transfer of a handfull of British troops to the Canadian provinces. They may have been transported across the Atlantic to be out of the way in England, or to be in the way in Upper Canada. The British government may have divers motives for this disposition of its forces, without the least reference to the existing relations between that government and this. It is far from improbable that the real cause of the movement may be traced to the revolutionary symptoms which have of late, appeared in the upper province, and may have been thought sufficiently serious to require the presence of a military force. Ibid.

New-York, June 13.

Accounts are received at Montreal that eight regiments of infantry, one of cavalry, and a proportional addition to the marines and seamen on the Lakes, are on their way from Great Britain to Canada. Various conjectures are entertained as to the object of this movement. One states that it proceeds from the high-toned replies of the United States' government, in the explanation demanded by Great Britain on the Arbuthnot and Ambrister business.

Raleigh, (N. C.) June 11.

THE BANKS AGAIN.

We have seen, in one or two papers, paragraphs tending to alarm the public mind, as to the effect of the late determination of the local banks in this state. It is to be hoped, however, that on this occasion the community will exercise its usual solid judgement. Our banks have made no determination to refuse paying in specie, nor will they refuse, but to those who have established a business of drawing it from their vaults, and that for the purpose too of having it exported to India. In all usual transactions they will pay with cheerfulness and alacrity. They are able and willing to adjust all balances with other banks, and with honest dealers. A peculiar state of financial concerns has forced on the banks a measure, very disagreeable to be sure, but, in their minds, the lesser of two evils. They do this too with all confidence that it cannot scarcely even for a moment affect their reputation. Their solidity is too well established and believed in; and they cannot but remember a period in which they refused specie to every applicant, yet in which their notes were at large premiums as far north as Connecticut and Massachusetts.

At Petersburg, where it is said (by their papers) the measure alluded to will produce serious embarrasments, we think there has been a very unnecessary excitement; there ought not to have been any thing like alarm; for all the trading people in that town, know too well on what ground we stand. If their banks refuse to take our paper in payment of their debts, it is unquestionably with a view of getting in their own paper, to shield their own specie, or, as we have understood they have been in the habit of doing, of employing agents to buy up our paper at a discount, after discrediting it by a refusal to receive it, and then selling it at a profit to brokers. We annually see the public report of the resources of the Virginia banks, made to their legislature, and, will only remark that, if our banks were not on at least as good a foundation as theirs, we should think there was cause of alarm.

BANKS OF NORTH CAROLINA.

We observe that some misapprehension exists as to the determination of the banks of this state respecting specie payments. They have not the smallest design to refuse prompt pay to the holders of their notes. They only mean to guard their vaults against the inroads of speculation. In doing this they believe they will receive the countenance and approbation of the community; [Minerva.

Baltimore, June 16.

Between the hours of 10 and 11 o'clock on Monday night, the distressing cry of Fire was resounded through the streets of our city. It proved to be on Federal Hill in the large and commodious house erected by subscription for a Sunday School.—It was nearly finished, and on Sunday last for the first time divine service performed there in the presence of about 400 persons. The building, together with the stationary, were consumed. Thus, by the sacriligious arm of some midnight ruffian has an establishment dedicated to the service of Jehovah, and for the instruction of the indigent little ones, who are the objects of his peculiar care, been wrapt in the conflagrating element. We most fervently hope this atrocious outrage will operate as an incentive to redoubled vigilance on the part of those to whom the guardianship of our lives and property are delegated during the hours of nocturnal gloom.

MAIL ROBBERY.

We understand, that on this charge John Fosked, a mail carrier from Richmond to Petersburgh, was on Saturday evening apprehended by a warrant from the Mayor of this city, on the complaint of Messrs. Edwin Porter & Co. who are the contractors for that mail.

This being an offence against the laws of the United States, the prisoner was delivered over to the custody of the Marshal of this District; and after an examination by Chief Justice Marshall, was committed to jail, to be tried at the Circuit Court of the United States, in November next.

The mail appears to have been robbed by a false key, on Friday night last. A number of letters and packages were found in the prisoner's chest, addressed to persons in Washington, Baltimore and New-York, the seals of a few of them being broken.

No money was found.

John Fosked, we are informed, is from the State of Massachusetts, about 25 years of age.

The robber has confessed the facts. We learn that all the letters in the following mails were found in his trunk, several of them opened, but it is believed nothing has been taken from them. Charleston mail to New-York, date June 7. Petersburgh mail to New-York, June 11, all the letters correct with the post bill. Charleston mail to Philadelphia, 7th June; letters correct with the post bill. Norfolk to Washington, 10th June. Norfolk to Baltimore, 10th June. Charleston to Baltimore, 7th June. These mails have been transmitted by special messenger to the General Post Office.

Philadelphia, June 14.

Five seamen by the names of James Keyser, Andrew Murray, William Stout, James Purr, and Thomas Purley, have been arrested and brought before his honor Judge Peters, on an examination previous to commitment, for the crime of piracy. These men have been charged by A. J. Spencer, a Portuguese subject boatswain of the Fortuna, which vessel sailed from Havana last February, laden with sugar, coffee, tobacco, mahogany, and logwood, and bound to Cadiz.

On the 10th of April last, off Cape St. Vincent, this vessel was taken by the Privateer Julia de Forest Capt. Wilson, said to have been fitted out from Baltimore, with a Buenos Ayres commission. She was brought to the Capes of Delaware, and one of the crew was sent to Philadelphia, for the purpose of procuring another vessel to return to the Fortuna and the plan was to tranship her cargo on board the vessel so procured, then to scuttle the Fortuna, and import the cargo on board the other vessel into Philadelphia.

Whilst off the cape last Friday, the Pilot came on board the Fortuna, when Mr. Spencer privately gave this information to him, he steered the vessel into the Delaware, and whilst some of her men were on shore, who had taken the person there, to procure a new vessel, the Pilot took charge of the Fortuna, and brought her to the city.

As this case will involve the lives of the prisoners, we do not think it proper at this time to give a more particular statement—they have been commited for trial, which will take place at next October Session of the Circuit Court.

MAC GREGOR'S EXPEDITION.

By captain Richardson, from St. Mary's, we learn, (says the Darien Gazette of the 7th inst.) that one of the transports which had been attached to Mac Gregor's expedition, (the brig Petersburg Packet, of London) put into Cumberland Sound on the 31st ult. for water. From the commander, and by inspecting her log-book, captain Richardson obtained unquestionable information of the destruction of Mac Gregor's troops at Porto Bello, on the night of the 27th or 28th of April last, precisely three weeks after that city had capitulated to them. They were taken by surprise at the dead of night by the Spaniards, who gave no quarter; and so complete was the discomfiture, and so terrible the carnage, that only about five of the Patriots escaped to the shipping. Mac Gregor was ashore, and asleep in his quarters, when the attack commenced, and must have shared the fate of his soldiers, but for the resolute courage of his two aids-de-camp, who, on the house being beset, rushed to the door, and kept the Spaniards at bay till he effected his escape through a window, and reached the beach, where, though wounded themselves, they joined him, when all three leaped into the sea, and swam to the transports. They had scarcely well gotten on board the ship Monarch, of London, when the batteries on shore opened on them, but by cutting the cables the vessels got to sea without sustaining much injury. Mac Gregor and his suite continued on board the Monarch. Every vessel took such course as safety devised. The force of the Patriots on shore at the time, amounted to four hundred and fifty.

PHENOMENON.

A few days since, at Sandy Bay, Cape Ann, the tide rose ten feet in a few moments, and as suddenly ebbed. In the rapidity of the ebb a boat was overset, and the person in her was drowned. An important spring on Mr. Trask's land then became dry, and has continued so. Many of the inhabitants of the vicinity think there was an earthquake.

A few days since we were informed by respectable and intelligent master of a vessel, that on the 1st May last, he and others saw off the Table Land of Cape Cod, an aquatic animal, which exhibited an appearance different from any thing which he and they had ever before seen, altho' our informant has spent most of his life at sea, and in the whaling service. When the head of the animal was first seen, at a distance, it had, says our informant, the appearance of a man standing in a boat; that soon after it approached in the direction of the vessel, the head immerging in the water as it advanced, and passed the vessel within thirty feet, then exhibiting the appearance of a large horse swimming, its nose projected, and leaving a wake as large as that of a vessel 120 tons, under quick way. That the color of the animal was brownish, that no fins were visible, excepting one like a flapper near the tail, which appeared under water to be somewhat indented. Our informant did not wish to appear before the public as a narrator; but communicated the above facts for our information; and which were fully confirmed by a gentlemen who was a passenger with him. [Boston Centinel.

From our Correspondent at Gibraltar we learn that, on the 3d of April, the Governor of that place received a peremptory demand from the Governor of Cadiz, for the surrender of William A. Copy of a letter, dated Amsterdam, April 16.

We had this pleasure the 4th March, to which we refer, and are since deprived of your esteemed favors, and chiefly intend the present to inform you of the result of several public sales, announced by our former letter. The 25000 bags of Java coffee were retained, and after the auction had taken place, the parcel was sold at 14 stivers in average. The Java rice, of which our market is entirely overstocked, was delayed and annihilated. Of the 5000 bags black pepper, 1500 bags were sold at 17 a 19—several small parcels Maryland tobacco (for large quantities are not to be had) were disposed of from 11½ to 13½; but of Kentucky, the sales have not been so favorable, and a great deal has been retained; the parcels sold were paid from 6½ a 9, and those prices we deem not susceptible of any decline. With sugar it is rather flat at this moment, and the prices obtained a month since would not be obtainable now by 2 to 2½ groats—if, however, the state of commerce will turn to the best again, and re-establish our former activity, there is no doubt but prices will increase as the stock on hand of coffee, sugar and colonial produce in general, except rice, is so immaterial, that it cannot be contributive to a decline.

We have had no suspension in our exchange by all the many derangements which have successively taken place in London, and Paris, &c. of any importance, but many of our houses have materially suffered, which as bankers, were involved in acceptances. We have only the house of Melvill and Blaaum, which failed last week, being largely engaged in the trade to the East Indies, where several losses on provisions shipped that way, and the returns of rice, tamarinds, pewter, &c. have brought it to the necessity of stopping payment. *[Balt. Rio Janeiro, April 7.

Our market yet remains very inactive with an unusual stock of produce and manufactures on hand. Flour within these few days has revived a little and is now current at 9 millreas 200 per barrel with a prospect of further improvement ere long. In wheat something has been done for the River La Plata, as accounts reached us almost two weeks ago that Artigas had been cut off from Buenos Ayres, Captain P. came from the river La Plata to make shipments of wheat, and since then several cargoes gone down."

Salem, (Indiana) May 17.

A Salt Lick was discovered some years since in a very deep valley on Twin Creek about eight miles from Salem. The land was taken up by a Mr. Lee of this county who has associated Capt. William Rodman, Capt. James R. Higgins, for the purpose of carrying the object of making salt into effect. They last week commenced boring and had not penetrated more than four feet through a solid rock before they struck a vein of salt water, which has been pronounced by men who have been at various salt works, to be superior to any in the western country. This carried into effect will be of great advantage to our country, by rendering us more independent of the other states who are constantly taxing us for this necessary article.

A Velocipeder presented himself at a turnpike-gate, and demanded, "Whats to pay?" ## Land for Sale.

I WILL sell a great bargain in a small tract of land, containing about 150 acres, more or less, lying on the Potomac river and Monroe's creek, between the two, on the north side said creek, and forming the mouth, whereon William Williams has for many years resided. This situation would be particularly convenient for any person who follows the water, the Creek forming an excellent harbor, and the neighborhood being wealthy, constant freights might be got. The land is susceptible of great improvement, and is the very best wheat land in all the neighborhood. As it is presumed any person wishing to purchase will first view the premises, a further description is thought unnecessary. For terms apply to the subscriber, near Mattox Bridge, Westmoreland county, Virginia.

50 Dollars Reward.

RAN AWAY from the subscriber yesterday, a negro, named FREDERICK, about 26 years old, 5 feet 9 or 10 inches high, had on when he eloped a bottle green close bodied coat, velvet pantaloons, black cassimere vest, fur hat about half worn—took a bundle containing sundry articles of clothing.—Said Frederick has a remarkable scar on his right thigh. It is supposed he is lurking about Alexandria, for the purpose of obtaining a passage for the north. Whoever apprehends said negro out of the state of Maryland, shall receive the above reward, and all reasonable charges if brought home, or secured in jail, so that I get him; if taken within the state of Maryland thirty dollars, and all reasonable charges if brought home to the subscriber's residence, in Charles co. about 7 miles from Piscataway.

GEORGE DEMENT.

The editors of the National Intelligencer and Baltimore Federal Gazette will please publish the above for four weeks, and forward their accounts to the editor of the Alexandria Gazette for payment.

Gunston for Sale.

THIS elegant estate is situated on the Potomac, 16 miles below Alexandria—it is bounded on three sides by the Potomac and Pohick creek, and contains nearly 3,000 acres of land, level and fertile, to which are attached six shad and herring fisheries, two of which command the river channel. This land will be laid off in four tracts, so as to have one or more fisheries to each; these tracts will be again divided if requisite. This estate is level and beautifully situated, very fertile, and remarkably healthy. Plaister acts with an effect equal to that of any part of Virginia or Pennsylvania.—I have used 500 bushels in twelve months, and such is its beneficial operation, that were I to keep this land I should considerably increase the quantity. A manufacturing mill is distant about two miles, on a stream navigable for vessels carrying 1200 bushels of wheat, where the Baltimore and Dist. of Columbia prices are given for grain: being bounded on 3 sides by water, a small extent only of fence is necessary to inclose the whole: it would be admirably adapted to grazing. The inprovements are a large and very substantial brick mansion, 40 by 70 feet, with every necessary outhouse, three commodious barns, houses for Negroes, and fish houses at each of the fisheries. 120,000 bricks and 1000 bushels of lime are just burnt on the premises. There is a considerable extent of live fence, both useful and ornamental, two orchards of well selected apples and peach, besides an abundance of other choice fruit. More than 150 acres are in clover, 200 in corn, and land is in preparation for sowing 250 bushels of small grain. Any quantity of hay can be cut from the low grounds, some of which (and all might,) have been reclaimed at a trifling expense. The river and creeks, abound with wild fowl, particularly canvass backs, the woods with deer and a variety of other game. Mules, cattle, highly improved sheep, farming utensils and household furniture can be had. The terms of sale will be accommodating. Property in any of the cities, negroes, bank stock, western lands, or lands near the Ridge, will be taken in payment.—Letters must be addressed to me at Pohick Church, Fairfax county, Virginia.

September 4 GEORGE MASON.

Valuable Property for Sale.

THE subscriber is desirous of selling a handsomely situated farm, on Hunting creek, in Fairfax county Virginia, adjoining the Mount Vernon estate and the lands of general Thomson Mason, four miles from Alexandria, containing about 240 acres, 80 of which are in wood—40 to 50 in thriving meadow of clover and timothy—a part of the residue recently seeded with wheat and rye, and clover, last spring—the whole enclosed with a new post and rail fence.—The improvements are, a comfortable and convenient frame dwelling house and kitchen, smoke house, poultry house, granary and stables.—There is on this place a rich and productive garden, and a large body of marsh meadow, from which may be saved annually 100 tons of hay, nearly as nutricious as the best timothy or clover.—With the farm would be sold a number of very valuable horses, cows and sheep; waggon, carts, and a variety of farming utensils and household and kitchen furniture; corn, oats and rye, and 10 tons hay. Also, adjoining the one above described, a farm containing 160 acres, recently enclosed, on which is a brick house, which a trifling expense would render comfortable. The soil is excellent, and a considerable part might be easily converted into meadow.—it would be sold with the other or separately. Also, a number of valuable servants, male and female. To prevent unnecessary application, he would observe, that they will only be sold to persons residing in the District or its vicinity, and not to be carried from it. The subscriber will also sell the greater part of his household furniture, which is new and handsome. For terms of all or any part of the above property, apply to NOBLET HERBERT, esq. or

Oct 8 FRANCIS ADAMS, Jr.

S. Drew, Merchant Tailor,

Removed from Fairfax-street to the corner of King and Columbus streets, and his prices falling

RESPECTFULLY acquaints his customers and the citizens in general that he has removed as above, where he will study to give satisfaction. He has by him a small but well assorted stock of goods, which will be found on inspection to be of the best quality, the whole of which he wishes to sell low for cash, and as further inducements to purchasers he offers to cut out any goods, bought of him to any size or pattern gratis.

S. Drew aware, of the advantage a ready money business has over one where long credit is given, thinks that a distinction ought to be made in the prices in each case: and as the price of provisions are low at present, he is glad to be able to announce to those customers who will feel disposed to pay him ready money for his work, that he will reduce the price of making to them according to the present journeymen's wages; and to prevent any supposed imposition on the one hand or disatisfaction on the other he is willing to be governed by the printed regulations of prices by which the journeymen are paid in Alexandria.

N. B. Bread, flour, beef, groceries, liquors or any thing valuable taken in exchange for clothes.

S. Drew has this day opened a tavern in the same house, where he has laid in a a supply of Philadelphia and the district porter and ale, together with liquors of the best quality, and he feels confident that he shall be able to give satisfaction to all who will please to favor him with a call.—He is fitting up his house for the accommodation of boarders, travellers, &c. and from its central situation, good beds and stabling, together with other requisites, he presumes that it will be found a convenient establishment. may 25

100 Dollars Reward.

IS known to have been kidnapped from a field near Germantown, between the hours of 12 and 2 o'clock, on the 30th ult. whilst at work alone, a Free Black Man, named HENRY HUDSON, aged between 21 and 22 years, of the height of five feet five inches, very black complexion and dark eyes, has a scar under his left arm, between the wrist and elbow, occasioned by the cut of an axe.

He is by occupation a farmer, a native of Kent county, in the state of Delaware, had on a blue cloth roundabout jacket, old black silk vest, corded velvet pantaloons, and a wool hat.

He is a very civil, inoffensive man, with rather a down look. There is reason to suppose that he was decoyed into a carriage, and conveyed southward.

Any information respecting him will be thankfully received. Keepers of turnpike gates, toll bridges, and taverns, are particularly requested to give such information as may be in their power.

The above reward will be cheerfully paid on conviction of the perpetrators of this flagrant outrage upon the rights of a freeborn citizen of the United States.

Exchange & Broker's Office,

ROMULUS RIGGS,

AT his office, next door below Crawford's tavern. Bridge-st. Georgetown, will exchange all kinds of Bank Notes on the most reasonable terms.—All persons who may have notes on the banks of North Carolina, South Carolina and Georgia, would do well to call on him, as he is largely in the purchase of that kind of money, and will take it on the most reasonable terms.—Persons travelling to the Western Country may at all times get the Bank Notes of the Western Banks at a fair discount, by calling at his Office. For the information of all persons throughout the U. States, R. Riggs makes it known, that all of the Banks of the District of Columbia pay their notes on demand in specie; and it would be much to the advantage of the merchants, and trading to the South and west, to encourage the circulation of the Notes of the Banks of Georgetown, Washington and Alexandria, as it will at all times answer for remittances to the large commercial and Atlantic towns;—all persons emigrating or travelling to the westward should be very particular and take the Notes of the Banks of the District of Columbia, as they will find them the most current, there being no counterfeits on the District Banks. The Merchants' Bank of Alexandria has long since failed—all persons should be on their guard, as they will be imposed on. August 18

Notice,

To Wheelwrights, Blacksmiths, Tanners, Harness-Makers, Saddlers, Hatters, &c.

BELIEVING as I do, that PROVIDENCE, at Fairfax Court-House, would be a suitable situation for mechanics of the above description, I offer to such, lots in that village for sale, on ground rent for ever—will build and furnish suitable houses and rent to them, or furnish brick to them to build with; and invite any who feel disposed to settle there, for the purpose of carrying on their respective trades to advantage, to come and view the situation. It is a very public place, the centre of the county, where the superior and county courts are held. The Little River Turnpike Road passes through this little town from Alexandria westward, and where all the public meetings for the county, &c. are held; and where trades of the aforesaid description being carried on, would meet with great encouragement, and be a public convenience to the country around. No situation can be more healthy—good water, and fire wood cheap. Mechanics of the above description must generally depend on the country people, farmers, &c. to be their customers. Here they would be in a convenient situation for all the purposes. I invite a call, and view for themselves. I would also furnish lots adjacent, from one to five acres each, for cultivation, pasture, &c. on moderate terms; all of which can be shown, and terms made known, on application to RICH'D. RATCLIFFE, Fairfax Court-House, Va.

GENTLEMEN, Your favor of the 2d inst. is at hand, wherein you offer me an opportunity, through the medium of your paper, to reply to an anonymous publication of the 31st ultimo, for which you will please to accept my thanks. My reply to that piece, and all others of like character, is, that I have avoided as much as possible coming in contact with blackguards and assassins. Further, that all publications coming from me are intended to convey useful information to the public, and to prevent imposition.

Permit me also the further privilege of your paper, that I may make it known to all persons in every part of the Union, that the Mechanics' Bank of Alexandria do now pay specie for their notes on demand, and that persons holding their paper may rely on its being promptly met.
